During this paradigm shift in the entertainment industry, 3ality Digital Entertainment is focused on the recalibration of audience expectation by delivering not only technologically superior 3D content, but creating entertainment experiences that stand the test of time. Join us at this Createasphere Event to experience 3ality! Light refreshments will be served.

What you'll see:

- 20,000 sq. ft. facility utilizing the highest quality technology complete with a fully equipped 24 seat 3D theater and DI suite.
- 3D Camera rigs
- 3D screening in the 3D theater
- 3D post production demo

Groups will rotate thru the theater, camera walk thru and post production demo.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact robin@hdexpo.net

2009 will be a year of transformation as HD EXPO enters the Createasphere. As the global content creation community continues to reinvent the way we work, HD EXPO will expand from a trade show supporting the adoption of a single technology to an organization that supports the broader needs and interests of the content creation world.
